BRENDA J. GRABACKI LEADERSHIP SCHOLARSHIP

The Elmhurst Junior Women's Club was founded in 1998 as a philanthropic organization to give women the opportunity to support local charities and community issues. Our goal in awarding this $1000 scholarship is to recognize a young lady who embodies the spirit of leadership and community service that forms the basis of our association. The scholarship recipient should meet the following criteria:

1. Female high school senior
2. Elmhurst resident
3. Minimum GPA of 3.0 (out of 4.0)
4. Demonstrates strong community involvement

Please submit the following to our committee by March 24, 2010:

1. Attached application form and responses to questions below.
2. Two letters of recommendation from a high school teacher, counselor, coach, business or other community leader
3. A copy of your transcript (official transcript is not necessary; photocopy is acceptable).

Please respond to the following questions on separate paper. Be sure to include your name on your response.

1. What are your goals for attending college and beyond?
2. Describe any personal achievements of which you are most proud.
3. What talents, skills and attributes do you have that contribute to or enhance the lives of others?
4. Describe one thing that sets you apart from your peers.

The EJWC Arts & Education committee will select the recipient(s) from completed applications received by March 24, 2010. Amount of scholarship to be awarded is $1000. We will be awarding two scholarships ($1,000 each). Award will be deposited directly into recipient's account at their educational institution once proof of enrollment is received. You may contact Andrea at 630-834-9379 with questions.
